Telephone: 404-376-4155

Areas of Experience: Collections, Commercial, Contracts, Corporate, Domestic Violence, Employment Law, Juvenile Law, Labor/Management, Employment Law, Elder Law, Family Law, Probate Law

ADR Experience: Mrs. Scott has a wide range of experience mediating for Gwinnett, Cobb and Clayton Counties. She has specialized training in juvenile mediation and regularly mediates for Clayton County's Juvenile Court. She also has specialized from the National Association of Stock Dealers and Regulation, Inc. She regularly resolves disputes between shareholders and stock brokers, as well as, between employees of the stock exchange and their employers.

Professional Experience: Since 1996, Mrs. Scott has been a solo-practitioner specializing in mediation, arbitration and juvenile law issues. She has successfully handled numerous business and personal disputes for the local county courts in the Atlanta Metropolitan area. She also worked in the area of corporations from 1996-1997 as a shareholder, board member and manager of two closely held corporations. Prior to working independently, she worked as a litigator for the firm of Franklin and Hubbard from 1993-1996. There, she primarily handled domestic relations, juvenile court and probate issues and she was appointed to the Georgia Commission on Children in the Courts while with that firm. Due to her domestic law activities, she received a grant to write a Domestic Violence Resource Guide for DeKalb County and she appeared on Good Day Atlanta to promote awareness of domestic violence. Her professional activities include: President of The DeKalb Medical Society Alliance, 1997-1998; worked on the committee to create and Alternative Dispute Resolution Section to the State Bar of Georgia, 1995-1996; a member of the Georgia State Commission on Children in the Courts, 1994-1996; a member of the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Georgia, 1994-1996; and has been a licensed member of the State Bar of Georgia since 1993.

ADR Fees: $120 per hour

Name: Lois D. Shingler, Esq.

Telephone: 770-493-1809

Areas of Experience: Domestic

ADR Experience: Ms. Shingler has spent her professional career dealing directly with people who are experiencing enormous stress. First, with Georgia Legal Services, then working for McVay and Stubbs in Canton and representing the Department of Family and Children Services, she learned how to resolve problems rather than seek judicial resolution. In 1990 she helped establish the office of the Child Advocate in Gwinnett, and learned Juvenile Law and trial practice at the feet of Judges Franzen and Judge Rodatus. From there she established a practice as Guardian ad Litem in Superior Court when few were doing that, and served as an administrative law Judge for the Due Process Hearings for Special Education Disputes. In the last two years she has sought more peaceful resolution of disputes, and has skill in domestic mediation.

Professional Experience:

1993 - Present: Self employed; Private Practice, Administrative Law Judge, Special Education Cases (OASH), Atlanta, GA

Telephone: 404-378-0000; 404-313-2092

Areas of Experience: Commercial, Contracts, Corporate, Employment, Insurance, Labor/Management, Property, Zoning, Land Use

ADR Experience: Mr. Shuey has served as a corporate in-house counsel for his first 25 years as a lawyer. During that period he developed an appreciation for ADR. Next to violence, he sees litigation as the least desirable means of resolving differences. Mr. Shuey took early retirement from the corporate world, and recognized his credentials as a neutral were lopsided. He then became a sole practitioner and concentrated on the legal problems of individuals and small businesses for the next 8 years. Having added that perspective he is now ready to move into ADR.
