 tenements of James A Brooks, late of County, deceased, which have or shall come into the hands, possession, or knowledge of the said Sarah A Brooks, or the hands or possession of any person or persons, for her, and the same, so made, do exhibit unto the said Ordinary when she shall be thereunto required; and such goods, chattels, credits, lands, and tenements do well and truly administer according to law, and do make a just and true account of her actings and doings therein when shall thereunto be required by the Court; shall deliver and pay to such person or persons, respectively, as they may be entitled to the same by law. And if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and the same be proven before the Court of Ordinary, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and Sarah A Brooks in such case, if required, render and deliver up the said Letters of Administration, then this obligation to be void; else to remain in full force.
