To the Ordinary of said County:

The Petition of George W. Jackson, a resident of said county, shows the following facts:

1. That on the 25th day of November, 1886, he applied for and had set apart to him a homstead as provided for under the laws of said State, which will be found of record in said county in "Homstead Record Book "B" page 377", and, for the purpose of amending said exemption and by way of amplifying the same as provided in Code section 3398, of the code of 1910, which provides in part, as follows:- "All produce, rents or pfofits arising from homsteads in this state shall be for support and education of the families claiming said homstead, and shall be exempt from levy and sale, "etc.

2. Your petitioner shows that arising from the exemption set out in his original exemption, and produced by the use of the said exempted property and the manual, physical labor of this petitioner there has arisen therefrom and is the direct product of the exempted property originaly described and as in this amendment set out, the following: 62½ acres of land, 28 stands of bees, 1 two passenger Ford Automobile, 1 dark bay mare Mule, name Nell; 10 head of hogs, 1 two horse wagon, 10 shares of stock in Lawrenceville Bank, 16 shares of stock in Lilburn, Bank.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that this his amendment and explanitory amplification be allowed and recorded as by law provided, and that the said property so described in this amendment be exempted from levy and sale as provided by law in such cases.
