Thos. G. Wallis & Assumpsit &c. In Gwinnett Superior Court June Term 1859
Wm. B. Wallis &c. And now at the term of Court aforesaid comes the Defendant by his attorney at Law Francis P. Jahan and defends the wrong & injury when &c and says that the plaintiff ought not to have and maintain his said suit against him, because he says that he did not undertake and promise as the said plaintiff in said declaration has alleged against him, and of this he puts himself upon the Country &c. And for further answer in this behalf Defendant says that the note sued on was given for the sum of seventy dollars too much through the fraud of said plaintiff in this to wit. that Defendant at the time & before said note was given was indebted to one Thomas Jones on one open account, but Defendant at the time said note was given did not know how much, which account plaintiff represented to Defendant that he had settled and paid off to said Jones, plaintiff also represented to Defdt that the amount of the said Account was for the sum of eighty two dollars and that he (Plff) had paid that amount to Jones for Defendant, plaintiff being the son of Defendant and Defendant having the greatest confidence in his honesty and uprightness did not make any inquiry of said Jones as to the amount he owed him and what plaintiff had paid Jones for Defendant, but settled with plaintiff & gave his note including the $82.00 plaintiff represented as having paid for him to Jones, which representation on the part of plaintiff Defendant avers to have been fraudulent and made with the intent to defraud Defendant out of the seventy Dollars for which Deft gave his note too much and more than was due plaintiff. Defendant avers that the account he was shewn by Thomas G. Jones and paid by plaintiff was for only Eleven Dollars and ninety seven cents all of which he is ready to verify and of which he prays the Judgment of this Honorable Court. And for further plea Defendant says that said plaintiff ought not to have and maintain said suit against him, because the said Thomas G. Wallis (Plff) before the commencement of said suit was and is still indebted to this defendant in the sum of three Hundred and thirty Nine Dollars and thirty five cents on an open account a copy of which is hereto annexed, which amount this defendant is willing and hereby offers to set off with plaintiff and of which defendant is ready to verify. Wherefore he puts himself upon the Country &c.

Pilgrim as Principal and James P. Simmons as his Security both of said County are to and unjustly detain from your petitioners the sum of five Hundred and eighty Dollars and Twenty cents besides interest. For that heretofore to wit on the second day of December 1858 at Lawrenceville Georgia to wit in said County & State the said Pilgrim & Simmons, together with one J. H. And your petitioners aver that said note was so given for the use and benefit of said Pilgrim and that altho' the same was so subscribed as aforesaid that said Pilgrim was and is in fact the principal debtor thereon and that said Bredwell and said Simmons were in truth and in fact but the securities of said Pilgrim thereon. Whereby the said Pilgrim and Simmons became liable to pay your petitioners the sum of money aforesaid according to the tenor and effect of said note. Yet the same to pay or any part thereof altho often so requested to do the said Pilgrim and Simmons & said Bredwell have hitherto and still wholly neglect and refuse to the damage of your petitioners One thousand Dollars.
